Among which GOODS are a very great and elegant variety of chintzes, printed cottons, muslins and linens; muslin gown patterns, striped with silk; tamboured muslin gown patterns and aprons, with plain, striped and sprigged, muslins; corded dimities and muslinets; black blond and thread, laces and edgings; black and white gauzes, satins, modes and lutestrings; silk, and silk and cotton vest-patterns; Scotch linens, cambricks and lawns; silk, cotton and thread, hosiery; women's hats, bonnets and cloaks; sheeting and diapers, &c. &c. &c. These goods are all of the best quality, and bought at the first market from the different manufactories; have been but about 18 months in this country, of course they are fresh and in good order, which will render this lottery advantageous to adventurers. There are not quite two blanks to one prize. The drawing will be in the city of Annapolis, as soon as the tickets are disposed of, under the inspection of proper managers, of which notice will be given in the Maryland Gazette, and after the drawing is finished a list of the prizes will be published for the information of adventurers.

Eight Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber, on the 12th inst. a negro man named WILL, about 23 years of age, five feet nine or ten inches high; had on, when he went away, a round felt hat, dunbeig shirt and trousers, and a coarse cloth over jacket, short and round, he had other cloaths with him, which cannot well be described, he is likely, of a very dark complexion, full faced, and has a remarkable fine set of teeth, he is slow of speech, and rather awkward in his manners, is a tolerable good blacksmith, but has never worked as foreman of a shop; he was formerly the property of Henry May, late of this county, blacksmith. This fellow was taken out of gaol at Alexandria, in Virginia, about eight days ago, but has since made his escape; when he was apprehended he had a forged pass in his possession, and it is expected he may have procured another. Whoever takes up the said negro and brings him to me, or secures him in any gaol so that I get him again, shall receive the above reward. RICHARD BEARD.

N. B. It is probable this fellow may endeavour to pass for a free man; as there are many free blacks passing about the country; when he went to Alexandria his intention was to have made his escape by water, I therefore forewarn all masters of vessels, and others, from harbouring or concealing him at their peril, if they should they may expect to be dealt with agreeably to law. R. B.

Anne-Arundel county, June 20, 1792. 2

Four Dollars Reward.

STOLEN from the subscriber's pasture, near this city, on Friday night the 15th instant, an iron gray GELDING, six years old, about 15 hands one inch high, no perceivable brand. Whoever secures him and brings him home, shall receive the above reward.

2 WILLIAM GLOVER.

P. S. It is requested, that those who read this will take notice, that the same reward will be given for the apprehension of the thief as for taking up the horse, by W. Glover.

Annapolis, June 20, 1792.

JOHN RIGBY,

STAY-MAKER,

RESPECTFULLY informs the public that he has lately removed to the house formerly occupied by Robert Cairns, Esq. opposite Messrs. Ridgely and Evans's store, Church-street, where he prosecutes the STAY-MAKING BUSINESS in its various branches.—He also returns his most sincere thanks to his friends and the public for the encouragement received since he commenced business in this city, and hopes, by diligence and due application, still to merit the favour of all who honour him with their commands.

Ladies, who live at a distance, may have stays made to fit them by sending the linings of their old ones, or measuring in the following manner, viz.

1. From the top of the fore-part to the peek-end.
2. From the top of the back to the lower lace-hole.
3. Round the body close under the arms.
4. Round the waist.
5. Under the arms as low as the hip.
6. Cross the breast from arm to arm.

N. B. Orders from any distance will be thankfully received and punctually attended to. J. R.

MANAGERS,

John Muir, Annapolis; Benjamin Stoddert, Georgetown; James Bell, Dutch-Anne; John Brooke, Upper-Marlborough; Thomas Tillard, Pig-Point; Robert Bowie, Nottingham; Truman Compton, Magruder's; John Forbes, Benedict; James Somervell, Thomas Harwood, junior, Joseph Williamson, William Graham, Peter Emmerson, Charles Williamson, John Chesley, Thomas Parran, Henry Huntt, Calvert county; of whom tickets may be had, and of all the merchants in Patuxent.

No. 1, contains all woodland, Bennet's creek running through it, and lies within thirty miles of the federal city, fully worth the estimated amount. 2 to 7 contains very valuable land lying near the town of Lower-Marlborough, where wood commands 20s. per cord, the cartage to the water little more than half a mile from the extent of the land, and each lot to have the privilege of a cart way to the water. Deeds, with general warrantees, to be made for the land. Plots of the land may be seen with each of the managers. The cash prizes to be paid on demand; the snuff warranted genuine and good, and to be delivered at Lower-Marlborough. Crop or transfer notes for tobacco, on Patuxent, will be taken in payment at the market prices. Ten per cent. deduction to be made to those who pay the cash before the day of drawing. The lottery is purposed to be drawn on the third Tuesday in June next, if the tickets are all sold, at Lower-Marlborough. Notice will be given of the time, and a list of the fortunate numbers published immediately after drawing. Country produce will be taken at the market price, if delivered at the subscriber's mill within one month of drawing the lottery.

W. ALLEIN.

Raleigh's Plant, March, 1792. 11

Five Pounds Reward.

A YOUNG MULATTO WOMAN left my plantation some weeks ago, and (as I am since informed) has been about Annapolis passing for one of the Butlers, her name is JEMIMA (commonly called MIMY); she is of the middle stature, of a straight and rather slender make, and has a pleasing countenance when in a good humour; she took with her, besides other cloathing not known, a calico habit and brown linen jacket and petticoat. Whoever secures her in any gaol so that I may get her again, shall receive the above reward, from

SCHEME OF A LOTTERY,

For the purpose of [illegible] the property of COLUMBIAN, consisting of [illegible] tracts or lots of LAND about four miles from the city of WASHINGTON, and [illegible] lower part of Georgetown, GEORGE-TOWN, as follows:

LOT No. 1, contains 107 acres, on at acre [illegible] of meadow-ground, and a promising young [illegible] ple orchard containing 120 bearing trees of choice fruit. At the western extremities thereof is a delightful eminence that commands a view of the river Potowmack and city of Washington. This lot contains about 16 acres of wood-land, lies upon a main road, and is not more than one mile from the city of Washington.

LOT No. 2, contains 84 acres, and bounds with the preceding lot; about 35 acres thereof are in wood, and about 17 acres in meadow-ground. This lot is bounded on the west by the meandering waters of the Piny-Branch. On this stream is a fall of 21 feet, and abounds with quarries of excellent building stone. On this lot are two beautiful situations for houses.

LOT No. 3, contains 39 acres, and bounds with lot No. 1. This lot contains 20 acres of wood, and has on it a beautiful eminence for a house as a country seat.

The fourteen lots in George-Town are in that [illegible] of the town which is contiguous to the city of Washington, and are all advantageous and beautiful situations.

3333	Blanks.

MANAGERS.

Robert Peter, colonel William Deakins, Benjamin Stoddert, Thomas Beall of George, John Threlkeld, and Daniel Davidson, Esquires, George-Town. George Walker, Esquire, city of Washington. Wallace and Muir, John Davidson, Esquires, Annapolis.

This scheme contains several very valuable lots of land contiguous to the city of Washington, whose increase in value will keep pace with the growth of the rising empire of the United States of America—Hence therefore, without any farther definition, it will be evident that for the small sum of one Guinea a valuable and beautiful country seat may be obtained in the vicinity of the capital of America; or a lot in a town now possessing an extensive commerce.

The subscriber proposes drawing this Lottery in George-Town, on the first Monday in May next, or sooner, if the tickets are all sold, which he flatters himself will be the case from his present prospect. Deeds, with a general warranty, will immediately be given for the lots of land, and the money for the cash prizes will be paid on demand. Notice will be given of the drawing in the public papers, and a list of the fortunate numbers will be immediately published. The crop now on the lots is reserved to the subscriber. A plot of the lots may be seen at Mr. George Mann's.

☞ TICKETS may be had of Messrs. Wallace and Muir, John Davidson, Esquires, and Mr. George Mann.

JOHN THOMAS BOUCHER.

* * An account of the severity of the winter the drawing of the above lottery is postponed to the first of August next. 17

THERE is at the plantation of HORATIO JONES, on Patapsco, near Philip Hammond's mill, in Anne-Arundel county, taken up as a stray, a dark bay MARE, about ten years old, branded on the left thigh B. low in flesh, shoes on nearly new, about fourteen hands high, has several white spots on her back and under her mane, and has been in his possession since the fifth inst.
